Artist Statement

My work explores the relationship between Bauhausian sensibilities and daytime TV.

With influences as diverse as Kafka and John Cage, new insights are synthesised from both mundane and transcendent meanings.

Ever since I was a student I have been fascinated by the essential unreality of relationships. What starts out as hope soon becomes finessed into a hegemony of power, leaving only a sense of chaos and the possibility of a new reality.

As undefined phenomena become clarified through studious and undefined practice, the viewer is left with a glimpse of the edges of our era.
