Effective Scholarship Application Tips

Essays: The goal of the Scholarship Essay is to provide scholarship evaluators and donors an opportunity to learn more about you as a person beyond your GPA, test scores, and major/degree choice. Your essay allows you the opportunity to help us learn what makes you brilliant and uniquely qualified as an applicant.

Resume: A Scholarship Resume is different from a job resume in that while both contain employment information or histories, the scholarship resume also allows donors to know what you are committed to in terms of community or volunteer service as well as academic awards and honors you've received.

Remember: The Scholarship Resume informs donors of what you are doing. The Scholarship Essay informs donors of who you are.

Scholarship Essays are NOT:

- Resumes: Donors are not looking for a repeat of your resume accomplishments.
- Journal entries: There is a clear distinction between personally revealing and intimate details.
- Formal essays: Donors are not looking for a scholarly publication. Rather the key here is to strive for a personal tone and voice that conveys sincerity.

Effective Essays:

1. Demonstrate insight.
Show who you are, how you think, how you decide to act, how you approach a problem, how you interact with your environment.
2. Demonstrate how you organize and express your ideas.
Show a logical progression of your train of thought. Your sentences should relate to each other with smooth transitions between changes in your story or introduction of new ideas.
3. Demonstrate uniqueness.
Show your unique attributes. Avoid generic, trite or meaningless statements.
4. Demonstrate effort in the application process.
Show that you engaged in the writing process. Seek feedback and assistance from other sources.
5. Demonstrate optimism.
Show that you are a worthwhile investment of donor's dollars. Show that you have the attributes necessary to succeed academically and professionally. Now is not the time to bemoan your misfortunes.
