Dear Kihun,

Congratulations! Dean Mary C. Boyce and the members of the Committee on Admissions join me in the most rewarding part of my job — informing you that you have been selected for admission to The Fu Foundation School of Engineering and Applied Science. As a member of the Class of 2019, you will be a participant in an academic community wealthy in intellectual and personal talents of every kind. We are fully confident that the gifts you bring to our campus will be unique and valuable and that your abilities will be challenged and developed here.

You and your family have every reason to be proud of the great achievements that we acknowledge today with this good news. It is our great pleasure to congratulate you on the successes that have earned you this fine honor, and we eagerly anticipate the successes that you will no doubt enjoy at Columbia. We hope you will share your joy and excitement with the faculty at your school who have helped you reach this happy day.

The Columbia faculty, students and administration look forward to welcoming you into a community that offers an our combination of a demanding curriculum, a diverse and talented student body, and a college town abundant in dynamics and opportunities. We know that you will contribute to the academic and personal excellence that has been the hallmark of Columbia students since 1754. The coming years at Columbia promise to be lively and joyful ones indeed as we build on 240 years of achievement and distinction.

To accept your offer of admission, please go to our Welcome Website, designed especially for the members of the Class of 2019: undergrad.admission.columbia.edu/welcome. If any member of the admissions staff can assist you in the days ahead, please do not hesitate to write or call. My colleagues and I look forward to welcoming you to campus next fall.

Warmest regards,

Jessica Marinaccio
Dean of Undergraduate Admissions and Financial Aid
